Among her numerous presentations are: Women and Power, Influencing without Authority, and Creating High-Performing Teams.

Speaker | Jon Vegosen, Founding Member, Funkhouser Vegosen Liebman and Dunn Ltd.

Jon Vegosen is a founding member of Chicago corporate and litigation law firm, Funkhouser Vegosen Liebman and Dunn Ltd. (FVLD), where he was co-managing partner for eight years. Although Jon provides legal counsel on a wide variety of matters, he has extensive experience working with companies and boards of directors on issues directly related to preventing and investigating sexual and other harassment in the workplace. The Commission on Women in the Legal Profession has hailed the anti-harassment policy that Jon developed at FVLD as a model for the American Bar Association. Approved as an EEOC anti-harassment trainer, Jon has conducted trainings for numerous clients, boards, and professional groups, as well as for employers that have been the subject of EEOC investigations and settlements. Jon speaks widely and has authored several articles about harassment issues. Jon has received the highest of peer review ratings, has been a "Leading Lawyer" in Employment Law by Leading Lawyers Network for several years, and has been designated a Super Lawyer in Illinois in employment law for the past three years. Jon has extensive board experience, including serving as Chairman of the Board, President, & CEO of the United States Tennis Association in 2011 and 2012. Jon graduated Phi Beta Kappa from Northwestern University and received his J.D. from Northwestern University School of Law, graduating Cum Laude.

Speaker | Aaron Turner, Senior Advisor, Risk Strategies Company

Aaron Turner is a senior advisor with Risk Strategies Company who consults with clients to implement the most effective practices for balance sheet protection and business preservation. His focus is helping executive teams prepare for and effectively manage claim scenarios involving regulators, shareholders, business partners or other parties. Aaron also has extensive volunteer experience and has advised not-for-profit boards and staff on their potential liabilities and the ways they can protect board members, employees and the entities themselves. Aaron received his B.A. in psychology and sociology from Miami University (Ohio).

Speaker | Terra Winston, Ringleader of inTerractions and founder of inTerra Consulting

Terra Winston, Ringleader of inTerractions (www.interractions.com) and founder of inTerra Consulting (www.interraconsulting.com), has dedicated her life to helping clients navigate successful careers that drive fulfilling lives. She is a leadership consultant and executive coach with over 20 years of business consulting experience and creates results for companies and individuals, from boardrooms to plant floors. Terra's successful approach comes from her unique blend of "hard" and "soft" business skills. She holds a BS in Systems Engineering from the University of Virginia, an MBA from Stanford University, and coaching certification from The Coaches Training Institute and international Coach Federation. Prior to founding inTerra, Terra worked at Deloitte as a consultant on process, strategy, and organizational engagements and as a Director at PepsiCo doing traditional HR and organizational development.
